

Mostly Children aged 2-3 years attend formal care and children aged 6-12 years attend informal care

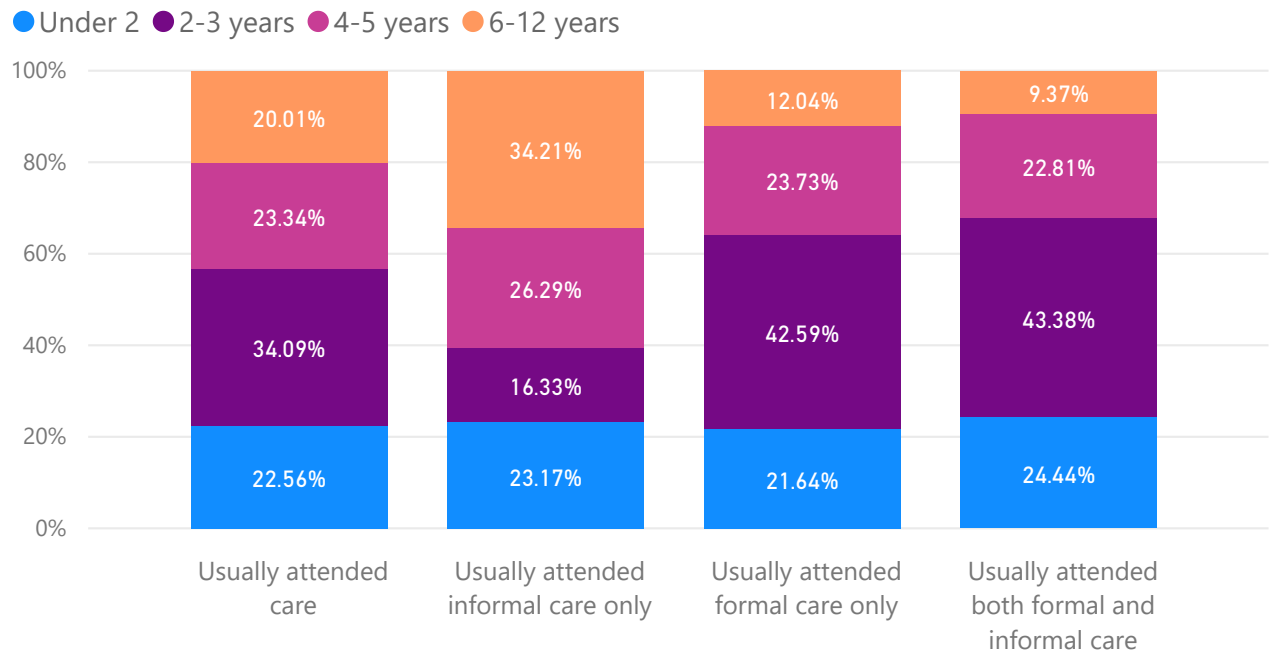

Total percent of children who attended formal care

60.40

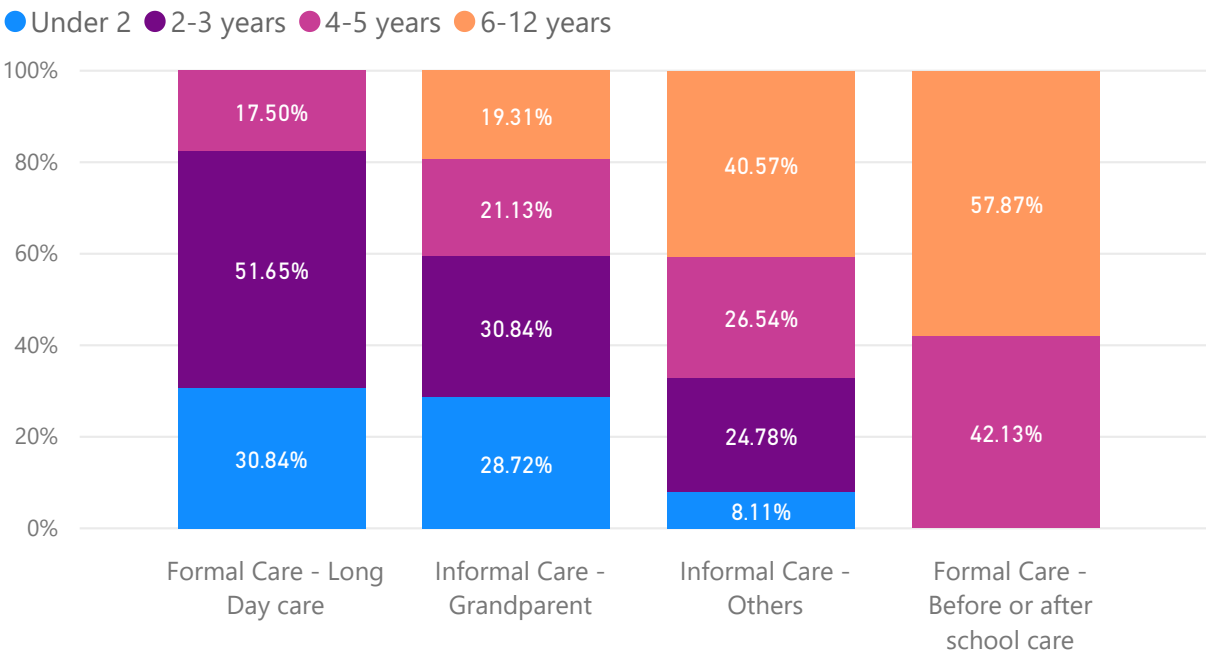

Total percent of children who attended informal care

33.30

Children usually attended Cares based on their ages 0-12 yrs

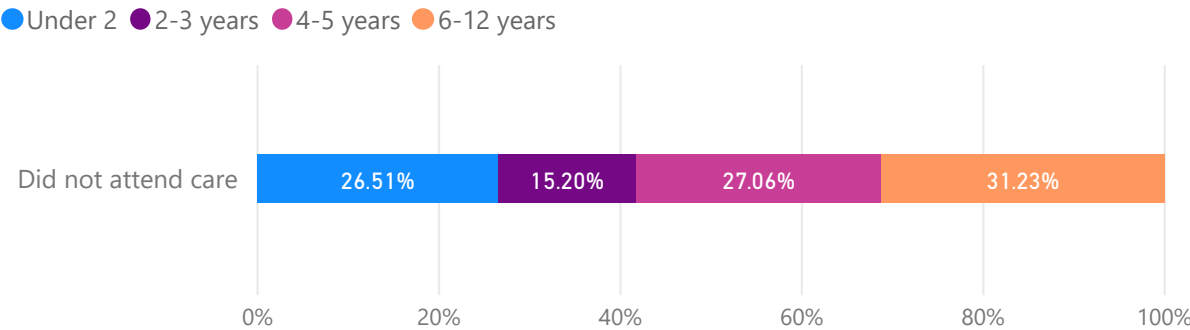

Children aged 0-12 yrs attending Formal and Informal Care

Total percent of children who did not attend care

49.40

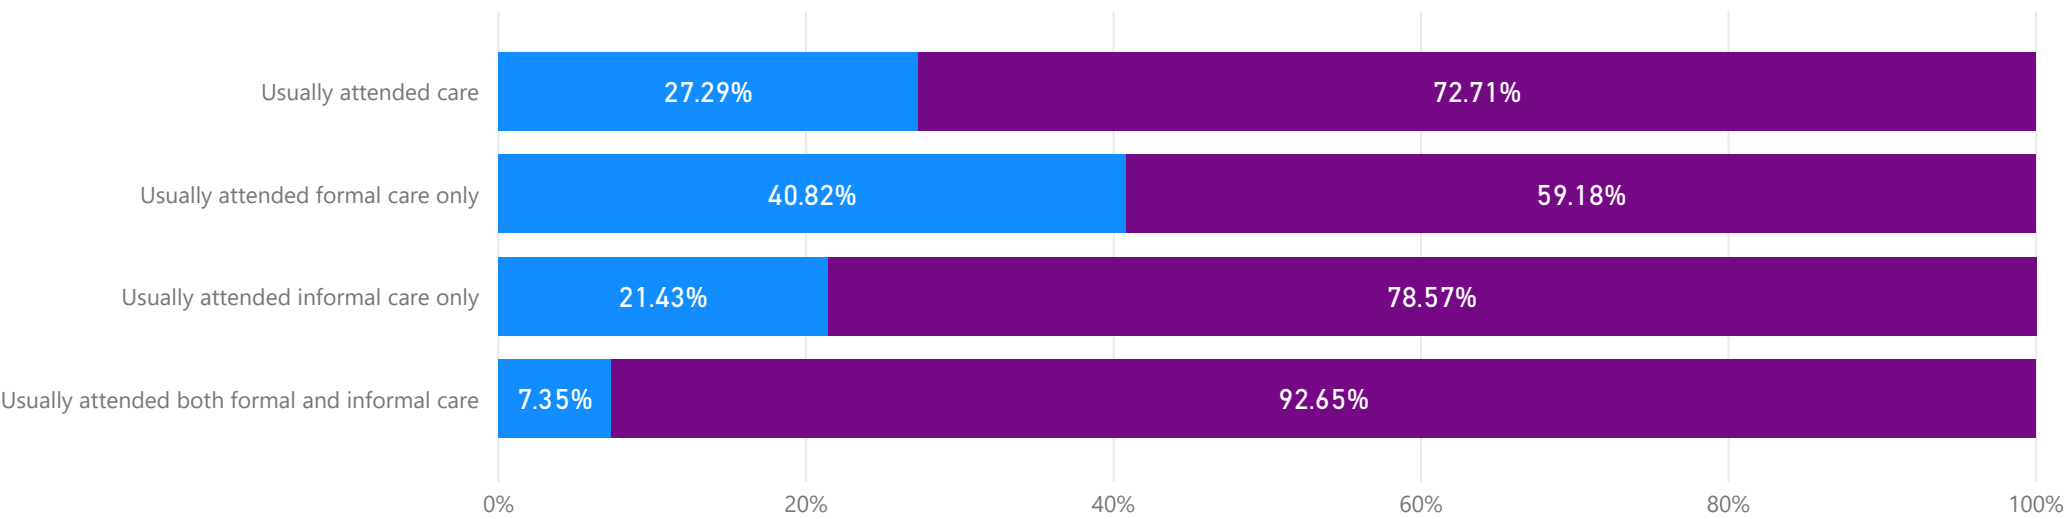

Children aged 0-12 yrs did not attend care

If both the parents are employed then there is high percentage of sending their children to some type of care.

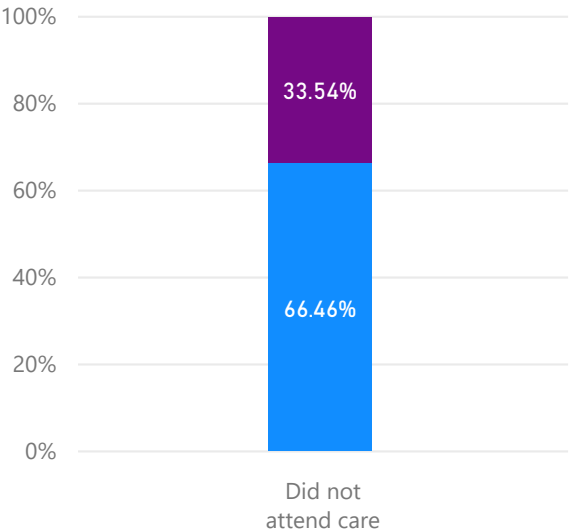

Children attending Care percentage based on their parent employment

● One Parent Employed ● Both Parents Employed

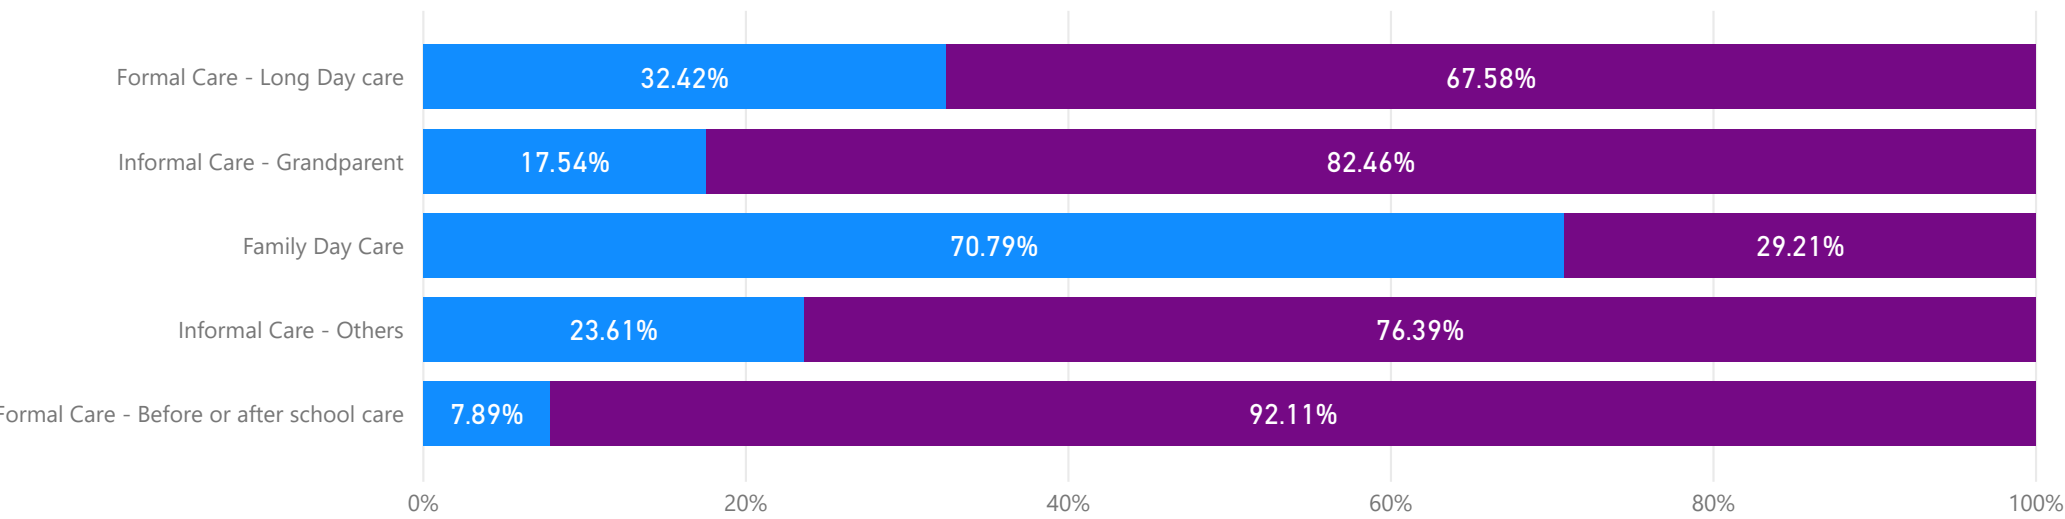

Children who did not attend care

● One Parent Employed ● Both Parents Employed

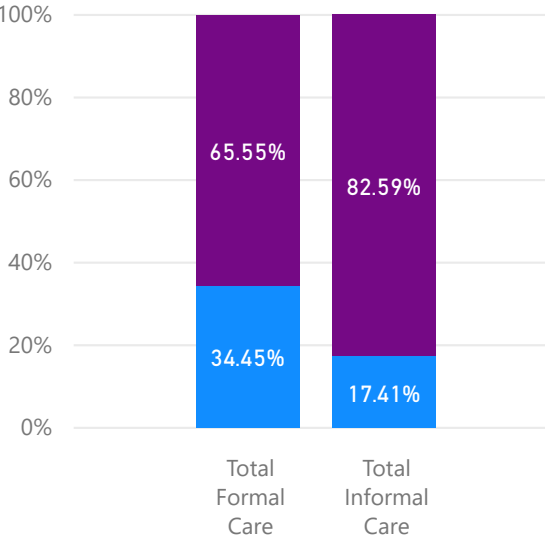

Children attending Formal and Informal Care based on parent employment

● One Parent Employed ● Both Parents Employed

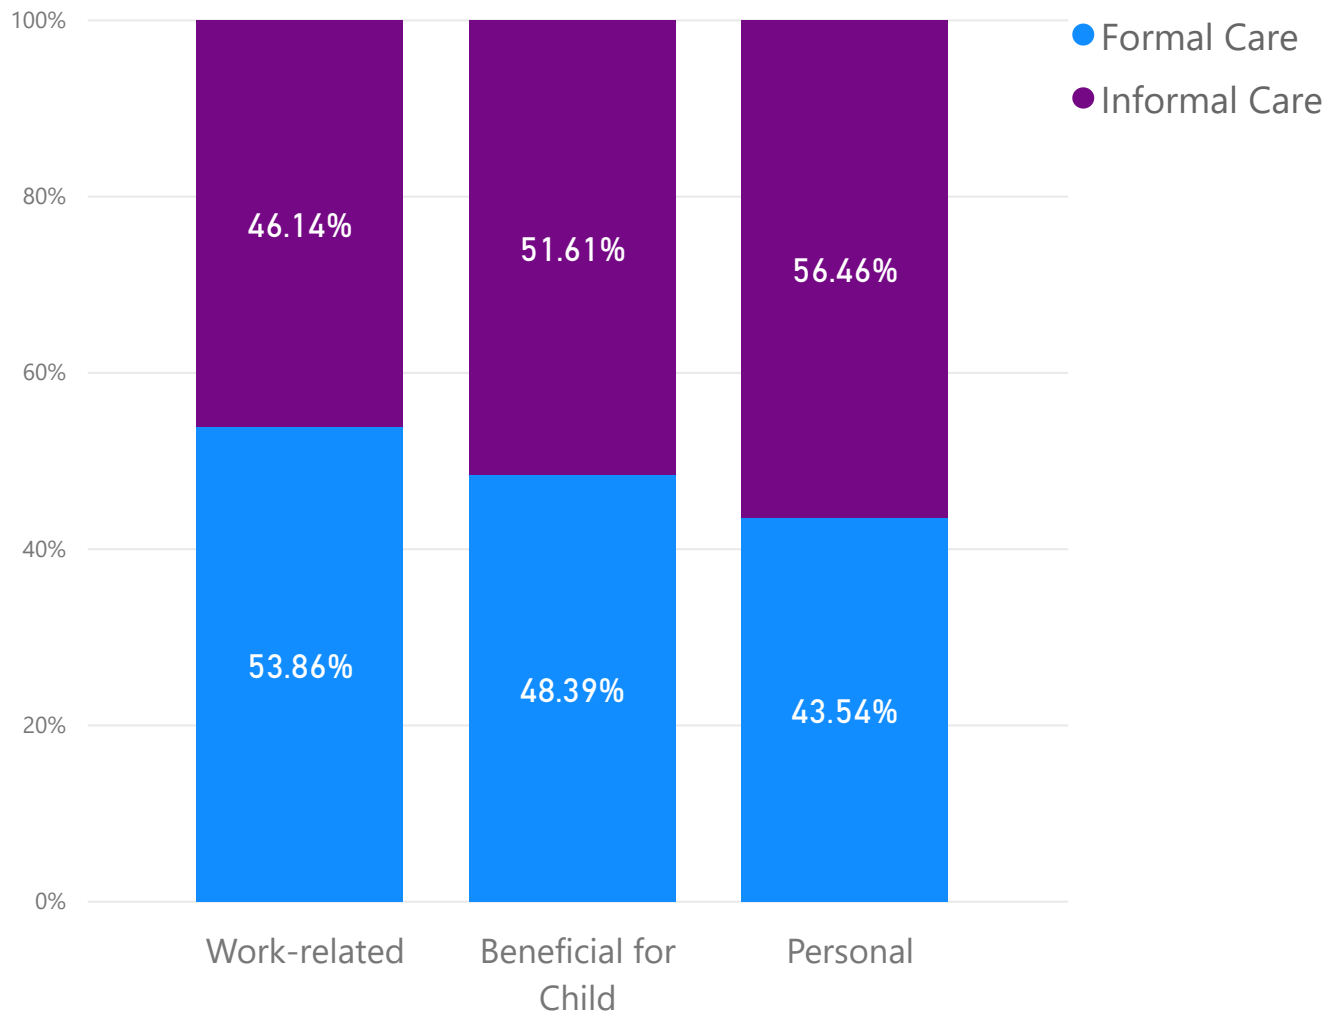

Total percentage of Children attending For...

● One Parent Employed ● Both Parents Employed

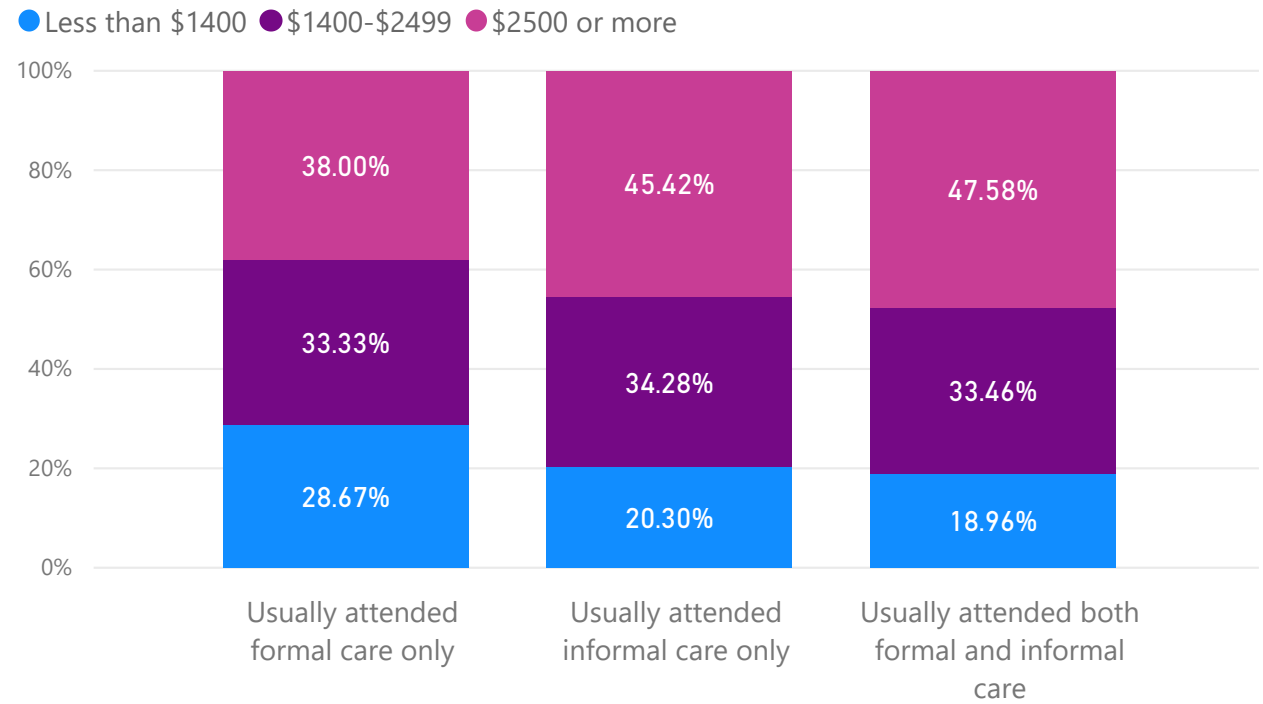

Reasons for attending the care

Because of work-related reason, most of children attend Formal Care and
Because of personal and beneficial reason, most of the parents prefer
Informal Care

Based on Parents weekly income children attending Care

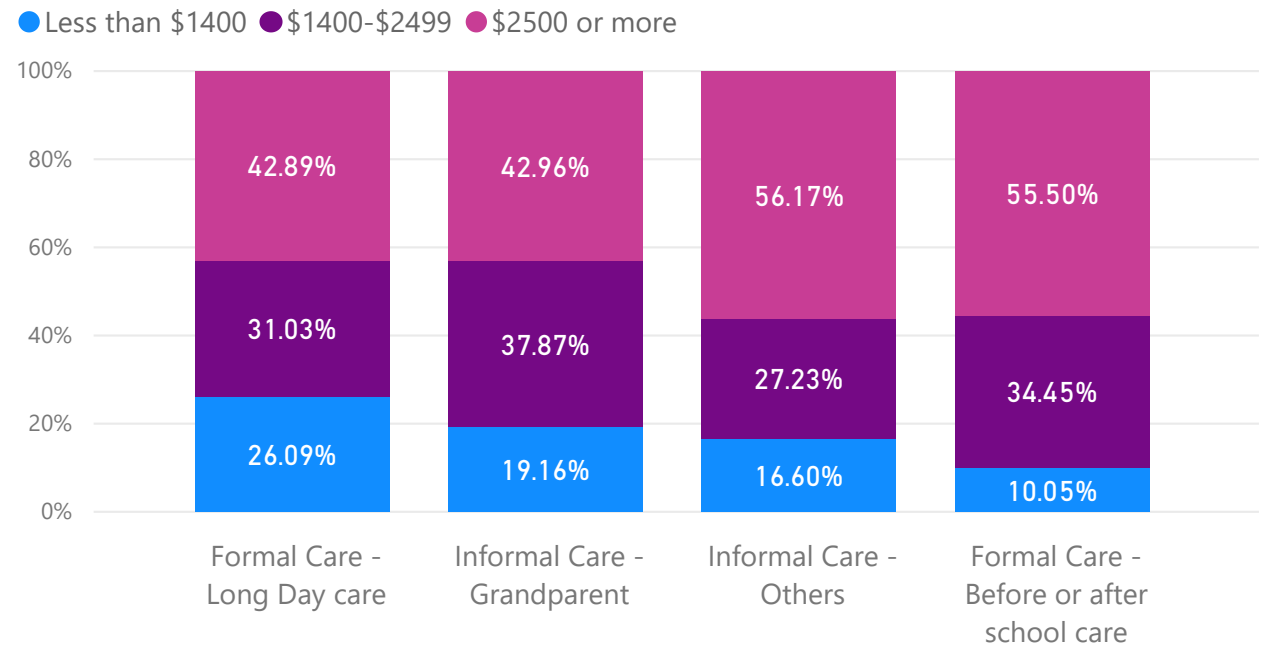

Based on Parents weekly income children who did not attend any care

Children with parents having weekly income over $2500 attend both the Formal and Informal Cares,
But Children with parents having weekly income less than $1400 are likely not attend any type of care.

Based on Parents weekly income children attending Formal and Informal Care

Based on Parents weekly income total number of children attending Formal and Informal Care

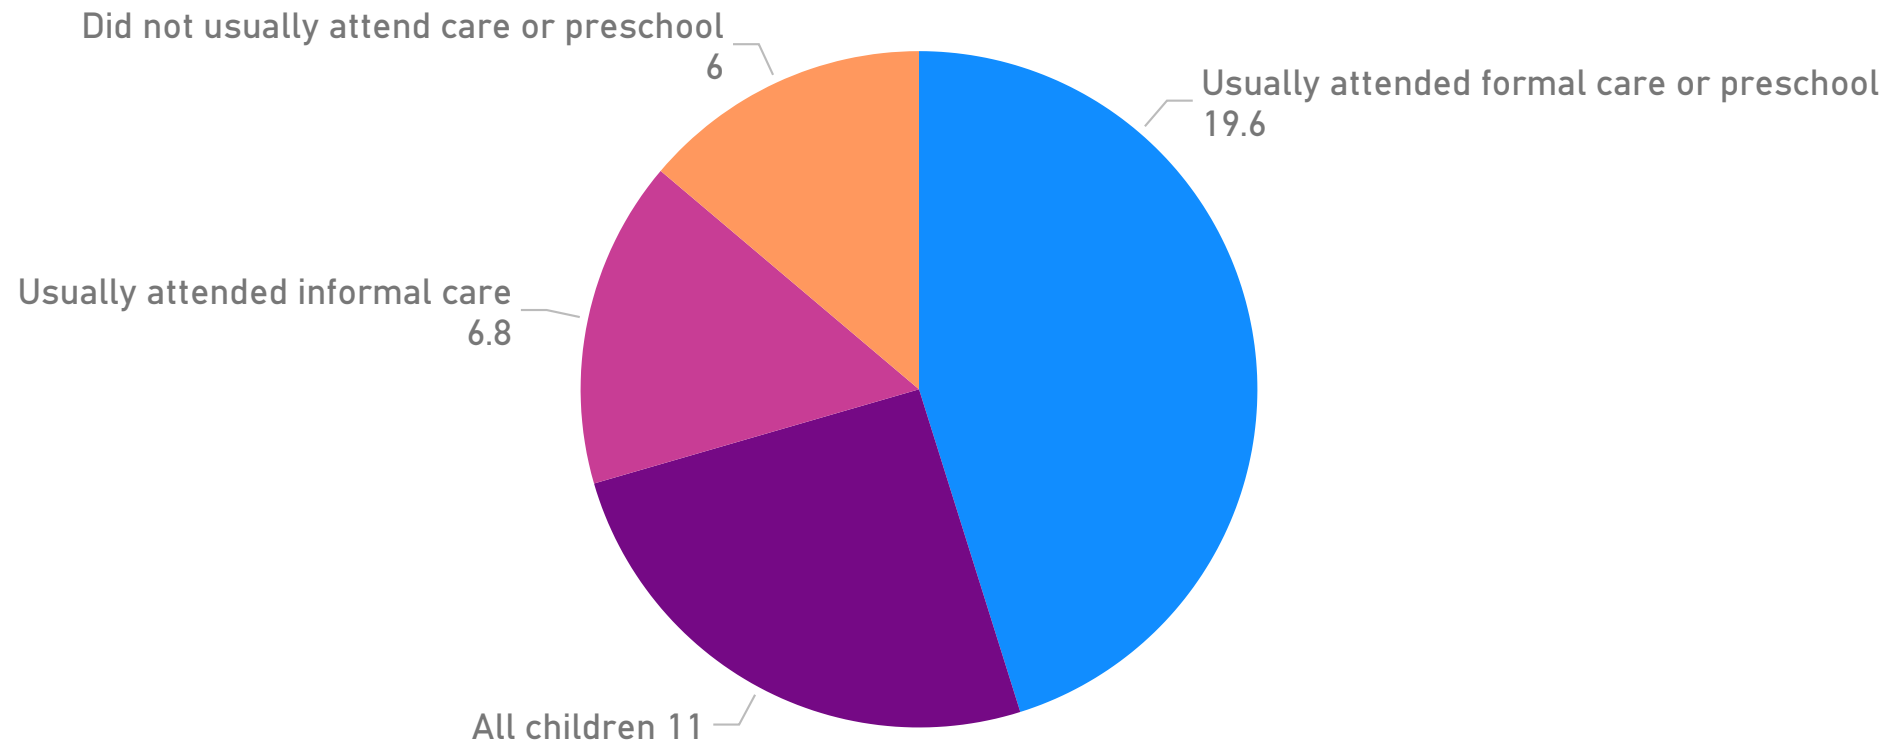

Parental Involvement - Informal based on Single and Couple Parent family

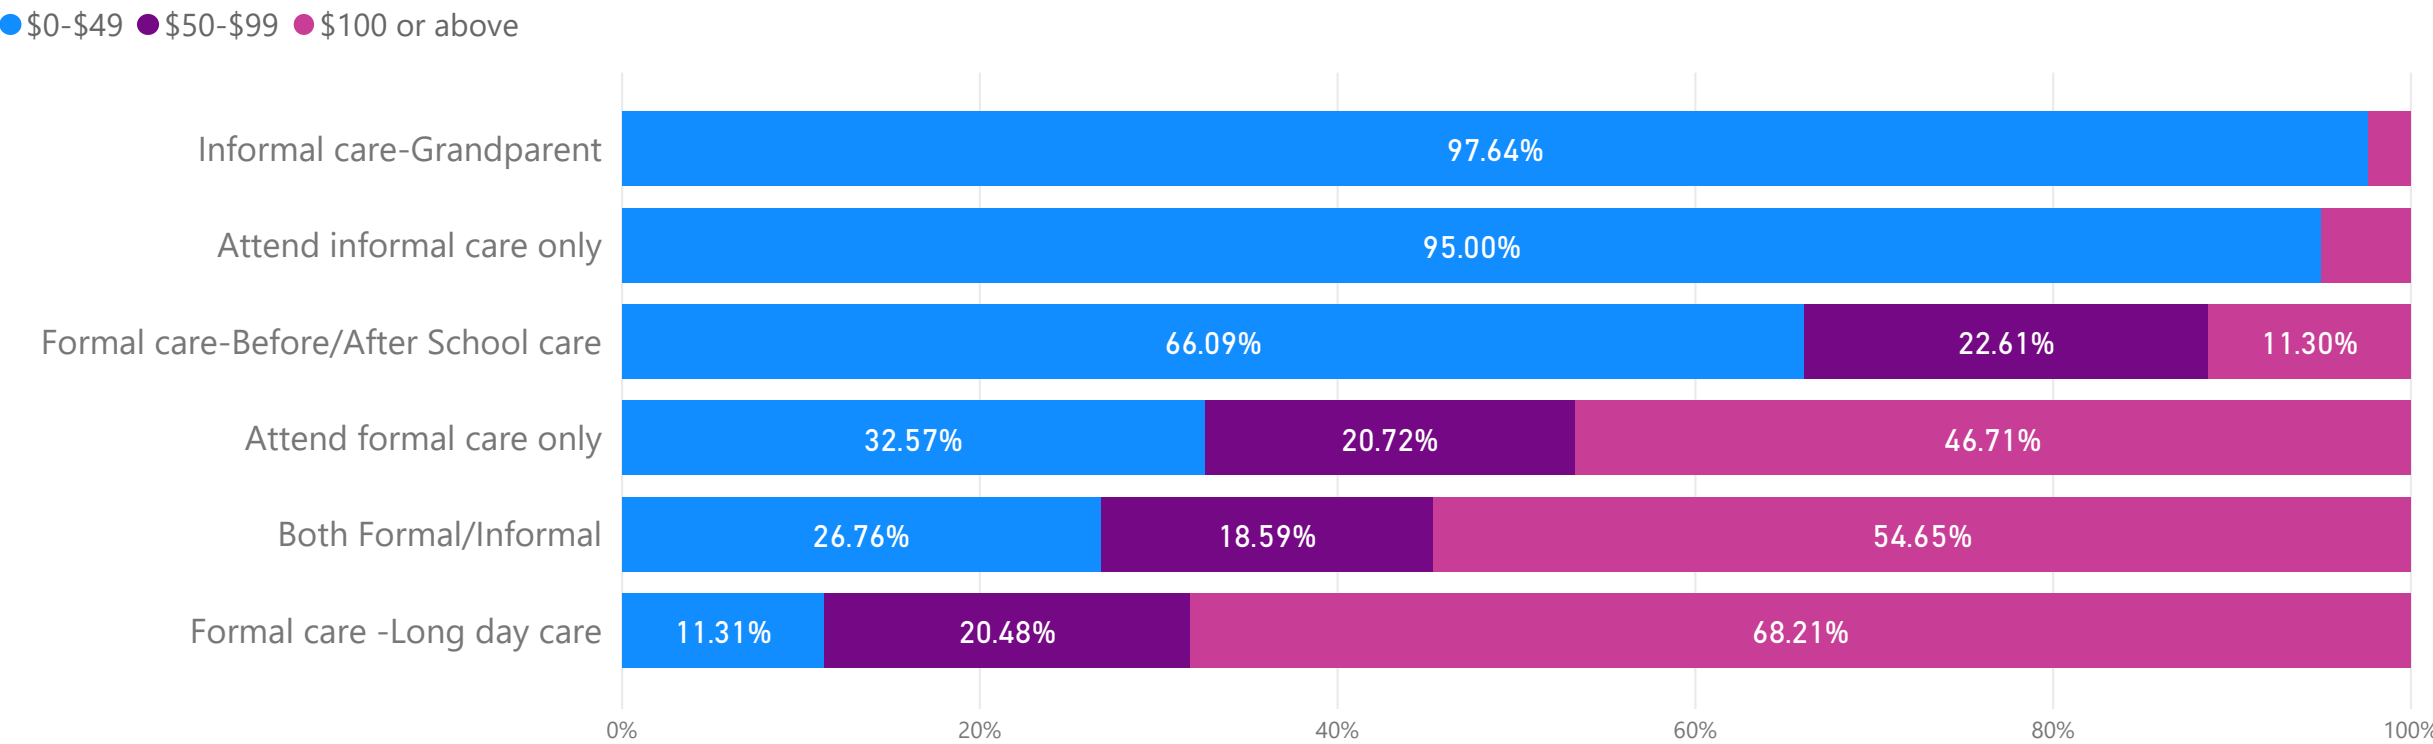

Most of the children from couple family have advantage of informal learning compared to children from single parent family

Percentage of Children require Additional care

Even though children attending the formal care, 19.6% of them require additional care.

Weekly cost of the Cares

Mean Cost $ for Total Formal Care

127.40

Mean Cost $ for Total Informal Care

16.40

Mostly the informal care weekly cost falls within 0-$49
Mostly Formal care based on before or after school care also falls within 0-$49
All other formal care has average of weekly cost of $100 or above

Cost of Formal Care based on weekly hours

● Less than 10 hrs ● 10-19 hrs ● 20 or more hrs

Mean Cost $ for Total Formal Care

127.40

Since 62.81% of 20 or more hours falls under $100 or more and mean cost of Formal Care is $127.40